

PortStanley Festival Theatre

Media Release: September 26th, 2012

On the evening of September 25th, the Board of Governors of the Port Stanley Festival Theatre was delighted to welcome three new members into their ranks during their monthly Board Meeting.

Russ Monteith, a London lawyer who grew up in Elgin County, Sharon Herrin, a branch manager for RBC, and London's Catherine Finlayson, the Executive Director of the Fanshawe College Foundation, all bring varied board experience, a history of community service, and an interest in the arts to the table.

The Board welcomes this infusion of new ideas, new perspectives, and veteran not-for-profit experience, as the Port Stanley Festival Theatre moves forward in its pursuit of excellence and community growth.
